The map displays a network of paths in a park area. A solid pink line indicates a route that has been snow-covered, while a dashed pink line indicates a route that is expected to be snow-covered. The paths are situated in a hilly area with green fields and some buildings. A road labeled 'Römminkatu' is visible. There are also parking areas marked with 'P' and a building labeled 'Hiihtari'. The date '6.12.2023' is noted, and the text explains the status of the snow cover on the paths.
